

Center Street Gallery

One of the brightest and most colorful places in town, Center Street Gallery has a long tradition of featuring contemporary art. We represent many nationally known artists and also emerging artists. Works range in style from landscape artists to abstract expressionists. The gallery is located on the east side of the Town Square. A variety of subject matter is available. Mediums of focus are original paintings and sculpture.

Gallery Location:

30 Center Street
307-733-1115
www.centerstreetgallery.com

1. Robert Deurloo, It Takes Two, bronze, 18" (h)
2. Malcolm Furlow, Transformation of the West, oil, 36" (h) x 60" (w)
3. Elizabeth Kimball, Next Generation, oil, 40" (h) x 30" (w)
4. Kay Stratman, Sky Dance, watercolor on gold shikishi, 19" (h) x 20" (w) panels
5. Don Webster, Proud Heritage, walnut, 28" (h)
6. Jean Richardson, Overseer, acrylic, 40" (h) x 30" (w)
7. Marshall Noice, Lower Valley Poplars, oil, 55" (h) x 43" (w)
8. Kathy Bonnema-Leslie, Spring Greening #4, watercolor, 25" (h) x 25" (w)

Represented Artists:
Lynn Berryhill, Kathy Bonnema-Leslie, Bruce Dean, Bill Drum, Robert Deurloo, Malcolm Furlow, Miguel Freitas, Jeff Gluck, Siri Hollander, Elizabeth Kimball, E.H. Klink, Marshall Noice, Raymond Nordwall, Andrew Parent, Francine & Neil Prince, Stephen Rolfe Powell, Jean Richardson, Dennis Sohocki, Sari Staggs, Kay Stratman, Diana Tremaine, Louis Von Koelnau, Joy Watson, Don Webster.