

A Horse of a Different Color

Step through the door and find yourself in a special world. You will discover a distinctive collection of American craft and fine art alive with color to excite your senses. The gallery features compositions in glass, clay, jewelry, paintings plus much more. All are contemporary in style and some with a Western flair. Choose pieces to enhance your surroundings, present as the ideal gift or simply to indulge yourself. And, of course, you will always find a horse of a different color.
