

Trailside Galleries & Gerald Peters Gallery Jackson Hole Art Auction

The Jackson Hole Art Auction is a unique live auction of Western Art that attracts collectors from across the country. Held every September in beautiful Jackson Hole, Wyoming, this premier western art auction features art from past and present masters of the American West. Historically recognized western american art is the focus, including works by the Taos Society of Artists such as E. Martin Hennings, Oscar Berninghaus, Joseph H. Sharp, E.I. Couse; and deceased American Masters including C.M. Russell, Albert Bierstadt, Maynard Dixon, Charlie Dye, Bob Kuhn, Frederic Remington, Carl Rungius, Olaf Wieghorst and more. Top contemporary Western and Wildlife artists include William Acheff, Clyde Aspevig, Robert Bateman, Ken Carlson, Robert Duncan, Nancy Glazier, Martin Grelle, G. Harvey, Howard Terpning, Z.S. Liang, Kenneth Riley, Mian Situ, Bill Owen, Daniel Smith, Jim Norton and others.

Location:
130 E. Broadway
866-549-9278
www.jacksonholeartauction.com

- 1. E. Martin Hennings, Taos Cottonwoods, oil on canvas, 30"(h) x 25"(w)
- 2. Howard Terpning, New Doll for My Granddaughter, oil on canvas, 36"(h) x 38"(w)
- 3. Martin Grelle, Camp Meat and Mules, oil on linen, 40"(h) x 54"(w)
- 4. Daniel Smith, A Nose for Honey, acrylic, 24"(h) x 20"(w)

